HFCU LAUNCHES $250,000 COMMUNITY GIVING INITIATIVE

The Credit Union unveiled its $250,000 Community Giving initiative, Hartford Federal Credit Union Gives 2023 at a ceremony on March 15, attended by Lieutenant Governor Susan Bysiewicz.

To kick off the campaign Hartford Federal presented eight charities with $10,000 checks:

- Joan C. Dauber Food Bank at St. Francis Hospital (Hartford)
- South Windsor Food & Fuel Bank
- Simsbury Food Pantry
- Safe Net Ministries (Stafford Springs)
- Newington Food Bank
- Windsor Food and Fuel Bank
- The Village for Families & Children – Fatherhood Engagement Services (Hartford)
- My Sisters' Place (Hartford)

Ed Danek, President & CEO, remarked that, "All of the recipients are amazing organizations providing vital services to those in need." He added, "Everyone has the ability to make an impact. What we do today can lead to lasting change."

Hartford Federal Credit Union will be making additional contributions throughout 2023 to charities with low cost structures that provide essential services to people of modest means.
